Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Arrow Child & Family Ministries (Arrow or ACFM) provides hope to children by providing safe environments such as foster and adoptive homes, group residential programs, and specialized education services to help in their development. Arrow uses evidence-based clinical models which help aid children in their growth and development. Arrow engages local communities and churches to help support its mission for helping kids and strengthening families.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Arrow Child & Family Ministries (Arrow or ACFM) provides hope to children who have been removed from their homes by the state due to neglect or abuse. ACFM recruits potential foster and adoptive parents, training them in evidence-based clinical models. Potential foster and adoptive parents go through an extensive background check and home study before Arrow places children in their homes. Arrow case managers visit children in foster homes periodically and ensure that their needs are being met. Reunification with the biological parents or relatives (kinship placements) is the goal of services. However, if the child is unable to be returned to the biological family, Arrow has adoptive parents in place to provide the child a permanent (forever) home. Arrow further supports children in care by providing skills training to function successfully in life using evidence-based models, as well as providing durable medical equipment and services to families caring for children with primary medical needs.

requirements for organizations filing as a consolidated group, two separate Forms 990 must be filed; one for the central organization (ACFM, EIN #01-0628536) and one for the affiliate group (ACFM CAG, EIN #90-1078761) without the central organization. The audited financial statements of Arrow present the combined Statement of Functional Expenses for the consolidated group and report the following percentages by function for the year ending 6/30/2021: 89% Program Services, 10% Management and general, and 1% Fundraising.
